GRAND JURY REPEATS SLOT MACHINE EDICT

BEALE TO CO-OPERATE WITH FOREST SERVICE O N AIR PATROL

NEVADA CITY: The co-operative air patrol arrangement between Tahoe National Forest and Army authorities at Camp Beale is again in effect for the summer season. Under this plan, General R. N. Weaver, Beale's commanding officer, makes available to the forest service for emergency work, two observation planes (L-5).

Gordon Vance, central fire despatcher at forest service headquarters here, stated yesterday that the planes perform four functions: (1) Search the forest area after lightening storms for "sleepers." These are smoldering fires frequently confined to one tree. The tree is struck during the storm and because climatic or moisture conditions are not auspicious smolders, but does not burst into flame for several hours or days.

(2) When fire in an area cannot be clearly observed or mapped by stationary lookouts, air reconnaissance is able to do so promptly and efficiently.

(3) Through the early part of the season's the army planes fly regular patrols, looking for fire, and keeping in radio communications with stationary lookouts.

(4) Occasionally in fighting serious fires, it is necessary to move key personnel in a hurry from one area to a distant one.

The L-5 planes, while able to land and take off in a minimum distance, have poweful motors and are relativel unaffected by downdrafts.

Vance, in discussing popular speculation on the possibility of a bad fire season, said: "Just because it's a little dry right now doesn't mean there will necessarily be an exceptionally bad fire season. We may have more rain before summer. Another important factor, perhaps the most dangerous, is wind. While future fires are always an interesting subject for speculation, it is almost impossible to make accurate uredictions in advance."

Dispatcher Vance emphasized that ceaseless vigilance was necessary in order to reduce the destructive human element of carelessness.

Funeral For Falling Tree Victim

NEVADA CITY: Military funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday for Wilfred C. Hile, 30, who died Wednesday morning in a local hospital as a result of injuries recevied when a falling tree top struck him Monday afternoon.

Services, under the direction of Rev. W. W. Turner, will be at Hooper and Weaver Mortuary, Grass Valley, with burial in Elm Ridge cemetery.

Hile, a native of Muskegon, Mich. had resided in Grass Valley for two years. During six years of army service, including African, Italian and European campaigns, he was awarded the Purple Heart, Bronze Star and the infantryman's badge.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elsie Hile, Grass Valley, and the following brothers and sisters: Earl Hile, Fruitport, Michigan, Lee Hile, Flint, Michagon, Mrs. Stanley Swears, Grass Valley, Mrs. Ruth Boller, Emily City, Michigan; Mrs. Julia Gilbert, Muskegon, Michigan; Kenneth Hile, Grass Valley; Robert Hile, Denver; Frank M. Hile, Jr., Grass Valley, Mrs. Fred Longcore, Sparta, Michigan.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION TODAY CHOOSE 5 FROM 8

NEVADA CITY: Local voters will choose five from eight candidates today for the school board.

Cedric Porter, Dr. B. W. Hummelt, Howard Penrose, Miles D. Coughlin, Dr. Cyril N. Kerrin, Eldon W. Kendrick, Paul Bergemann and Lambert B. Thomas are candidates.

The polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Liquor establishments will be closed during that period. Voting place is the elementary school.

SCHOOL BOARD OKAYS PLAN FOR KINDERGARTEN.

NEVADA CITY: The school board at its meeting Tuesday night approved a petition by 35 parents seeking establishment of a kindergarten this fall. Plans are contingent on securing a teacher and room for the youngsters' school,, but not insuperable difficulties are expected to be encountered in the respect, according to Miles D. Coughlin, secretary of the board.

Presently employed teachers, save those who have resigned, are to be offered contracts for the 1947-48 year. John M. Lewis,, Mrs. Willena Wolfe, Mrs. Elsie Sharp and Mrs. Mary C. Wallis of the elementary school staff and Marvin D. Lueck at the high school have resigned.

Applications of Alice Thibalt, Irma Atkins and Kathryn Carlson, all of Nevada City, have been accepted. Principal Ed Frantz submitted names of 49 high school students qualified for graduation. Curtis Clark has installed a new motor in the Diamond T school bus.

JURY WROTE LETTER TO SHELDON AND HOSKINS ON MAY 9TH, NOT SIGNED UNTIL YESTERDAY

NEVADA CITY: Fred Nettell, foreman of the grand jury which was discharged at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, revealed in a telephone interview yesterday that on May 9th the grand jury composed a letter to District Attorney Ward Sheldon and Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins, reiterating the jury's desire to see slot machines eliminated in unincorporated areas of Nevada County. Nettell said that he signed copies of the letter yesterday afternoon.

Nettell authorized publication of the letter, but the Nugget was unable to obtain a copy. The jury's letter, carried with it the implication that the grand jury was not satisfied with the slot machine situation, for which it had previously advised a cleanup campaign.

It developed from the interview that slot machines are rarely in evidence on days the grand jury meets, such as yesterday. A member of the jury estimated that most of the machines in the county could be gathered up by trucks and stored at a central depot in an hour and a half, and that, at the will of the operator, they could be re-distributed in the same time.

Nettell discounted statements that "there are no slot machines in Nevada County," pointing out that sudden disappearance of machines at any given instant had no real bearing on the long-range picture.

The discharge of the grand jury had no bearing on the slot machine situation, being a matter of legal routine. The discharged jury was a "holdover" jury.

Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins reported yesterday that he had completed a survey of the county and that no slot machines were in operations.

District Attorney H. Ward Sheldon stated that Hoskins' report was satisfactory and acceptable to him, but that he nevertheless intended to employ a private investigator to make an independent survey.

Sheldon expressed regret that his intention to conduct a new investigation had been widely publicized by a San Francisco newspaper. This, he said, gave forewarning to the gambling interests and made his task more difficult.

Some "free play" machines might exist in the county, Sheldon said, but these, according to legal precedent, he did not regard as unlawful.

Nettell reported that as far as he knew, slot machines had been successfully and permanently removed from the incorporated areas of Nevada City and Grass Valley.

Chief of Police Max Solaro of Nevada City stated catergorically that no slot machines or punchboards were operating within the city limits.

Frank Knuckey, Grass Valley police chief, declared no slot machines are operating in Grass Valley and that none have been since the removal of pay machines on March 22nd and the subsequent ordering out of "free machines" on April 7th. No punchboards are in use in Grass Valley, either, Knuckey added.

Local interest in the recurrent slot machine situation was touched off by a series of articles written under a Nevada City dateline for the San Francisco Chronicle by George Draper, staff writer.

Draper, in writing of the Speaker Sam Collins investigation, told how Collins and his brother John had paid a visit to Nevada County's district attorney on the very day Sheldon wrote to Hoskins advising him of the necessity of doing away with slot machines in unincorporated areas. Sheldon's letter at that time was to pass on telephonic instructions received from Fred Nettell, foreman of the grand jury.

Sheldon deprecated emphasis placed on this visit, stating that it was a coincidence and that slot machines were not mentioned in the conversation, except casually, as Collins left. Real business of the meeting, he said, was a deed he was handling for John Collins.

The San Francisco Chronicle had further reported that Speaker Collins' brother John had been employed as a slot machine repairman by Lou Moore, whom it characterized as sole operator of slot machines in Grass Valley.

John Collins is at present employed as a clerk in the state assembly.

In it's December report the Nevada County grand jury said: "We would also call to your attention the existence of a slot machine or gambling organization throughout the state and we urgently recommnnd that the law enforcement officers of the county co-operate in its immedtate control."

FLETCHER NAMES FRED BUSH NEW WEATHER MAN

NEVADA CITY: Meteorlogist Edgar H. Fletcher, visiting Nevada City yesterday stated that he had appointed Fred Bush Pioneers Park caretaker as official weather observer for this city.

Chief of Police Max Solaro has been acting observer in recent months. The city hall location is not a good one for the recording instruments, because of high temperatures, reflected from the walls.

Bush has expressed an interest in acting as weather observer. The instruments will be kept near the caretakers home in the park.

COUNTY PLANS NEW WING FOR HOSPITAL

NEVADA CITY: The board of supervisors on Tuesday approved preliminary plans for a 48-bed veterans' wing. The proposed plans, drawn by George C. Sellon contain cost estimate of $150,000. Joint financing by state, federal government and county is expected, with each to contribute $50,000, providing state and federal governments concur in approving the plans.

It is planned to remodel the hospital to make the new wing a main entrance. Primary purpose of the addition will be to care fo veterans and their families.

GOLD FLAT PTA PROGRAM AND MEETING

The Gold Flat PTA will meet Friday night, May 16 at 7:30 p. m. at the Oakland school house. A program for Mothers Day will be conducted by Mrs. Havlett's pupils.

There will be nursery care for the children so that both mother and fathers can attend. Refreshments will be served following the meeting. All members are urged to attend.

FIRE RESTRICTIONS IN EFFECT MAY 15 TO OCTOBER 31

NEVADA CITY: Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the forest service has announced that the following fire hazard restrictions will be in effect from May 15 to October 31.

Permits must be obtained before building campfires on designated portions of the national forest. Smoking will not be permitted during periods of fire danger in designated areas other than improved place of habitation. This may include roads, trails and improved camping grounds..

In portions of the national forest closed to the discharging of fireworks, the following is forbidden: throwing or placing of a burning cigarette, cigar, match, pipe heel, firecracker, or any ignited substance in any place where it may start a fire.

SUPERVISORS INITIATE ACTION ON TOWN TALK

NEVADA CITY: At a meeting of the county board of supervisors, it was agreed to take immediate steps to prevent a recurrence of Friday's Town Talk tunnel cave in. The supervisors agreed with represeentatives of the State Division of Highways and the Nevada Irrigation District to make it a joint project and to share the expense.

Grave concern over the present situation was expressed by the Nevada Irrigation District. The filled-in tunnel is settling again, reportedly ndangering a high pressure NID water pipe.

Supervisor Cary S. Arbogast, of the first district, introduced the matter at the meeting. Present were Charles Law of the NID, and Charles Whitmore,, District 3, engineer for the State Division of Highways.

Miss Frances Pryor of Walnut Grove and her guest, Mrs. Rose Torrey, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martine. Mrs. Torrey resided in Grass Valley a long time ago, and when she was a little girl, heard Emma Nevada sing there..

LIONS PROMOTE TREASURE CHEST CHARITY PLAN

NEVADA CITY: The Lions Club at its Wednesday night meeting at the Deer Creek Inn pledged itself to an all-out drive put over the Treasure Chest idea. The Treasure Chest is planned as a local vrsion of the National community chest, whereby charities are sustained on a single-drive, single-donation basis.

LeRoy Kitts, chairman of the Treasure Chest committee, detailed plans to date. His committee of seven is prepared to give talks before all interested organizations on short notice. Members are Kitts, Harold Deeter, Charles Gordon,, Keith MacDonald, "Bud" Percy, Judge James S. Snell and Edwin Stephens.

Kitts, former executive director of the San Francisco community chest, stated that the proposed Treasure Chest would, if approved, probably be held each fall, and would be synchronized with national community chest day and tied in with the national one-donation drive.

CHAMBER PLANS CONFERENCE ON POLICING

NEVADA CITY: The Chamber of Commerce at its regular luncheon meeting decided to initiate a conference on police protection for outlying areas. The work of present personnel was not criticized, but LeRoy Kitts, Town Talk resident advocated a larger staff for the sheriff's office.

To be included in the conference are Grass Valley, Gold Flat, Indian Flat, Willow Valley, Glenbrook, Alta Hill, Union Hill and othe neighboring districts.

LUMBERMEN TO MEET MAY 23 IN GRASS VALLEY

COLFAX: The first meeting to organize a lumber producers association of Nevada and Placer counties was held May 11 at Colfax. Many subjects of vital interest to the local industry were recorded as needing immediate group attention. The name "Pla-Neva" Lumber Producers Association" was tentatively chosen.

It was unanimously agreed to proceed in the formation of an incorporated association of the owners of timber or timber rights, contract loggers and sawmill operators, who have a substantial part of their timber and logging interests in this area. Other operators in contiguous areas and with parallel interests may apply, subject to approval.

Several committees were appointed to start work on the more pressing problems. Temporay officers are W. L. Harvey, chairman, P. O. Box 704, Alta, California, and H. H. Parrish, secretary treasurer, P. O. Box 437, Colfax. After more than two hours of active work the meeting adjourned to Friday evening, May 23, at the Bret Harte Inn, Grass Valley at 7 p. m. The meeting will start with a dinner and informal discussions followed by the formal meeting.

COUNCIL HEARS HALSTEAD'S RADIO PLAN

GRASS VALLEY: Charles Halstead, local radio engineer, submitted plans to the city council Tuesday night for a radio system to include this city, Nevada City and the sheriff's office. The dual-purpose short-wave system would cost an estimated $4000.

Halstead, long associated with radio station work in this area, was requested to return next Tuesday night to present his proposal to the council at a closed meeting.

Other routine business of the city was transacted at the meeting.

HENRY STRICK IS ASSISTANT POLICE CHIEF

GRASS VALLEY: Henry Strick was appointed assistant chief of police at Tuesday's meeting of the city concil. Chief of Police Frank Knuckey declared the police department needed additional personnel.

Strick's appointment, at present temporary, carries a salary increase of $10 per month.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder about hobbys now,
And did you ever ride one?
Oh, you can't know the fun you're missed,
If you have never tried one.

"The world is too much with us; early and late, it lays waste our power." Now, the man who wrote those words, lived many years ago. He hadn't experienced anything in the line of world encroachments as we know them today; why did he feel as he did about his quiet,, self possesed old world of yesteryear?

No deadly submarines prowled his seas, no death dealing airships rode his skies. He knew nothing of radio, automobiles, movies and atomic bombs. Strikes were almost unknown in his day, juvenile waywardness was not discussed in public. What would he think of our world of today, what would he say?

We of today, really know what it means to have the world constantly impinging upon our lives and distracting our thoughts. It is a bemused old world and its voices are numberless. It cries and bemoans, it reprimands and berates, it giggles and guffaws, it sings and croons, it argues and debates, it utters jeremiads, it shouts vociferously and all of these sounds and a myriad more, are brought right into our homes via the air waves and natural curiosity urges us to turn dials and hear all. Truly our powers are laid waste.

How may we escape? One avenue of escape might be found, if we could find time to take up a hobby. Why not? Surely, we can find time to steal away from our blatant world long enough to spend a modicum of our time each day with an interesting hobby and surely those moments would bring needed relaxation and strength to mind and body.

Just a few moments—sometimes an entire day away from the noise and tumult of contending voices and vexatious problems. Are we not entitled to that degree of refreshment, and in new interests and enthusiams which a hobby might furnish?

How to choose a hobby? That should not be difficult; there is, in life of almost every individual a longing to do some certain thing, and the excuse for not doing it is usually, "I haven't time." Why not take the time—even a wee bit of time. Can't we take time spent in activities that are of little importance to our mental and physical well being? Those few moments might prove of inestimable value and, think of the fun of riding a hobby?

Up here in our hills or home, there are many hobbies waiting to be enjoyed. Getting acquainted with the trees of our forests is one. Collecting wild flowers is another. My own hobby years ago, was filling a cabinet with specimens of minerals and rocks found in this country, principally along the shores of dead rivers, whose channels had been laid bare by the processes of hydraulic mining. The eminent psychologist, Dr. Ben Sweetland, of San Francisco, conducts a hobby program on KSFO every Saturday morning at half past nine. If we gather constructive ideas concerning the adoption of a hobby, we would do well to hear these Saturday morning programs.—Adeline Merriam Conner.

The Struggle for Social Justice

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Amos.

Amos, the prophet, was a herdsman, who raised a peculiar kind of sheep for their fine wool. He said that "the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto My people Israel."

The Lord showed Amos a basket of summer fruit, and asked him what it was; when he answered, the Lord said, "The end is come upon My people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more."

"Hear ye this word which I take up against you," said Amos. "The virgin is fallen; she shall no more rise. She is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up. For thus saith the Lord God."

Because Amos prophesied disaster, Amaziah, the priest, complained to the king, and told Amos to "go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, And there eat bread and prophesy there."

MEMORY VERSE—Amos 5:24.

Veterans' News

Veterans in school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill) who plan to transfer to another out of state school at the end of this semester or intend to continue their education this summer in another school should call at the nearest Veterans Administration office to make several important adjustments in their records.

If a veteran moves to another section of the country his National Service Life Insurance records will be transferred to the VA branch office having jurisdiction over his new place of residence.

Before the veteran moves he should inform the present VA branch insurance office of his change of address, listing both his old and new address, policy number, service serial number and full name.

Student veterans who intend to continue their education this summer in a diffrent school should apply immediately for a supplemental certificate of eligibility.

Applications should be filed with the VA in advance of the end of the spring semester in order to insure receipt of the certificate by the veteran before he enrolls in summer school. The application, which may be obtained on the campus, should be sent to the VA office having jurisdiction over the school the veteran is now attending.

A Sound Thinker

As I sat a few days ago in the spacious office of Mr. John Snyder, secretary of the Treasury, and listened to that keen thinking gentleman outline his views on certain monetary policies, I found myself wishing that all public thinking were as clear, and as cognizant of good economic horse-sense.

In the first place the Secretary believes that a thorough study of the necessary costs of government should be made. He believes then that this cost should be reduced to the very minimum consistent with good government. In the second place he believes that a high national income is possible only if a sound economy is maintained. This sound economy must be based upon maximum production at high efficiency, which he feels would make possible a large foreign trade.

On Your Feet, Sam!

In the third place he believes we should seriously undertake liberal payments on the national debt. This should be done at once. To me that is just plain, common horse-sense. It is just the way a wage earner, farmer, merchant, or manufacturer, heavily in debt, with a large family, but still in good health, would have to plan if he expected ever to get on his feet and leave any heritage to his children.

Uncle Sam is heavily in debt, his children have adopted spendthrift habits, have lost the art of hard work, are quarreling with one another, and are growing more and more inclined to leave the worrying to the old man. The need of the hour is sound counsel from Washington for the entire nation to realize its critical condition, and to act accordingly.

A Sound Program

Secretary Snyder's program needs to be understood, for it is one in which the whole nation can participate. His three point program (in my own words) would be about as follows:

1. Stop the fantastic waste in almost every department of government. Pare costs rigorously, forgetting political expediency.

2. Let industry reduce prices until the profits stand at a very low level. Let labor aim for maximum production, in order to get a real raise through lower prices. Such production will permit active foreign markets, a thing not only necessary for us but for other nations as well.

3. Let taxes remain on a broad base, with only those cuts being made which are necessary to induce investment in the tools of production, while we all do our part to reduce the very heavy national debt.

Steady Employment

Personally, I would modify item three. It is my opinion that if reductions in the budget were seriously and studiously undertaken, all three points Secretary Snyder features could be achieved, and we could still obtain at the same time a real reduction in income taxes.

Comparatively high taxes we must have. The costs of national living, in times of peace but amidst quarrelsome and aggressive neighbors, may continue to run high. But there are certain reductions that by all means should be made in order to encourage more venture capital. We shall continue to need wide investment of private capital in tools. That will mean more jobs and more steady employment.

Q: I was discharged from the U. S. Army in May, 1945. Are readjustment allowances still available to me?

A: Yes, readjustment allowances are available to any eligible veteran until two years after the date of his discharge or release, or until two years after the official termination of the war, whichever is later.

Q: I am a World War II veteran and have been ill for five months. At the end of m sixth month of total disability, will I have to continue paying my National Service Life Insurance premiums or is a waiver granted automatically?

A: No automatic waiver of premiums is ever granted. A veteran must be disabled for six months before he may claim for refund of those premiums you paid from the date on which the waiver becomes effective.

The average age of the 10,851 men veterans on the Berkeley campus of the University of California is 24.

Gloomy Day Glamor

Togs for a rainy day.

By VERA WINSTON

SOMETHING BRIGHT and gay to wear on a rainy day is a grand gloom dodger. It might well be this pretty, practical raincoat which is made in misty blue striped with black. It buttons down the front to well below the waistline, A set-in belt ties in the center front. The slit pockets use stripes in the opposite direction for cuffs. The set-in sleeves feature deep armholes and French cuffs. The parka hood is separate.

SAVE STEPS

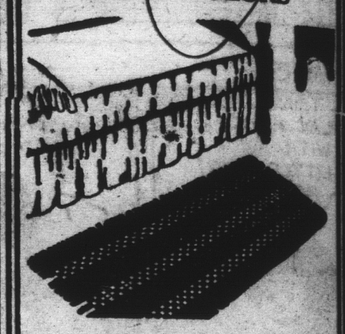

To save many steps back and forth to the telephone each day, the General Electric Home Bureau suggests building the telephone stand in the partition wall of the two most used rooms—perhaps the kitchen and living room.. Thus the phone is accessible from either room.

The Central Coast ranges and valleys comprise about 8.6 per cent of the state.

What Makes Telephone Jobs Good Jobs?

We believe telephone jobs are good jobs. But we'd like to tell you something about working conditions in the Telephone Company so you may decide for yourself. Good jobs are made up of a number of things . . . for example. . .

- Is the work steady?

  Telephone pay checks come regularly—month in and month out. That's mighty important to wage earners who can plan ahead and have reasonable assurance of steady telephone work all through the year, and year after year.

- Are extra payments made for Sundays worked?

  Yes. Time and a half is paid for Sunday work.

- Are extra payments made for holidays worked?
  Yes. Double time is paid for specified holidays worked. Full pay (with a few exceptions) is received by those who do not work these holidays. The holidays are New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Admission Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

- Are there paid vacations?

  Certainly. After a year's service, employees get one week with pay . . . two weeks after two years on the job . . . three weeks after fifteen years.

- Are there sickness benefits, death benefits and pensions?
  Yes. Since 1913, and provided at no cost to the employee.
  SICKNESS BENEFITS range from four weeks at full pay plus nine weeks at half pay for an employee with two years' service on up to a year at full pay for those with 25 years' service. The spectre of illness doesn't worry the telephone family quite as much as it would without this plan.

  DEATH BENEFITS to dependents range from four months' pay for an employee with two years' service on up to a full year's pay for an employee of ten years or more.

  PENSIONS —a funded plan paid for wholly by the Company. Money accumulated over the past 20 years is held by the Bankers Trust Company as trustee. This money can be used for employees' pensions only. Each employee's pension is based on his rate of pay and length of service.

- Are cafeterias provided?
  Employees' cafeterias, in larger offices, serving quality food at low prices . . . attractive lounge rooms . . . good surroundings . . . are just a few of the things that make telephone work pleasant.

More than 16,000 people here on the Coast have liked their telephone jobs well enough to spend more than 15 years with the company.

These things coupled with a policy of payiing wages that compare with those paid for jobs requiring similar skill and training in this territory have made it possible to attract good people to these good jobs.

ALLEGHANY SCHOOL HOLDS ANNUAL EXHIBIT

ALLEGHANY: The Alleghany school held an exhibit of the year's work on Wednesday, May 7th.

The most interesting displays were the following: A clay model of a quartz mine (cross section), by leader: Reginald Clemes, Helpers, Kenneth Bruning, Stanley Hart, John Robbins and Rosebud Clemens.

Next, an early mining landscape done in papier mache. Leader. Rosebud Clemens, Helpers, Shirley Hart, June Adair Hunley, Inez Van Doren and Wilma Clemens.

And last but not least: A relief map of Sierra County done in papier mache. Modelers: Ronald Clemens and Willard Van Doren. A brief history of Alleghany was written with the cooperation of the pupils, several members of the community and the teacher, Mrs. Lilian Boot.

There was an extensive art exhibit which included pictures done with the following mediums and methods: water color, crayon, colored chalk, pencil. spatter painting and finger painting.

There was also a large collection of the wild flowers of the region, pressed, mounted and identified as to family, genus and species.

A collection of pupils' paintings and drawings of the birds of Alleghany was also shown.

Pupils of Alleghany elementary school: Rosebud Clemens,, Wilma Clemens, Reginald Clemens, Shirley Hart, Stanley Hart, June Adair Hunley, John Robbins. Willard Van Doren, Wayne Brooks, Kenneth Bruning, Ronald Clemens, Inez Van Doren, Elaine Bruning, Marilyn Hart, John Van Doren, Richard Van Doren, Gerald Sanders, Sharon Strotneider, Sandra Whitman, Teacher, Mrs. Lilian Boot.

Both the teacher and the pupils deserve great credit for the display of their work which was very good.

An aftenoon and also an evening display or exhibit was held, and was largely attended by proud parents and other members of the community.

PERSONALS

NEVADA CITY: Judge and Mrs. George L. Jones were visited last week end by their daughters Helen and Nancy, both members of the Letterman General Hospital staff in San Francisco.

GOOD DRIVERS

Good drivers keep their cars in good mechanical condition, declares Bert Stewart of the Public Safety Department of National Automobile Club. To avoid serious mishaps they pay particular attention to the condition of tires,, brakes and the steering wheel mechanism..

HIGH SIERRA TRAILS

High Sierra trails are being put into first rate condition for this summer's tourists, reports National Automobile Club. Five men trail crews are working under the district rangers to clear, even and widen the trails. This winter's light snowfall should make it possible to reach high mountain points earlier than usual and practically all passes should be open before the end of June.

SALLY'S SALLIES

"Maybe they'll nickname him 765435 after you and—your numbers racket!"

CRUDE RUBBER

According to the latest estimates a surplus of crude rubber cannot be expected during 1947 reports National Automobile Club. Total world consumption of rubber will probably be around 1,700,000 tons. Crude rubber production is expected to be near 1,200,000 tons, which leaves a difference of 500,000 tons to be made up by synthetic rubber.

GRASS VALLEY: Mr. aand Mrs. Bruce McClard, former residents of this city, now residing in Visalia, visited friends here last week.

Herbert Barker of Oakland visited his father C. H. Baker here Sunday.

Roquefort cheese is now successfully produced in this country from cows' milk and aged under conditions duplicating the temperature and moisture of the French caves.
